SLAYER WITH SPECIAL GUESTS ANTHRAX

SUNDAY 17 MARCH

YOUR OWN EXCLUSIVE HOSPITALITY SUITE WHILE KEEPING PLUGGED INTO THE ENERGY OF THE CROWD. IT'LL BE SWEET.

The long-reigning titans of thrash, Slayer, are stopping over in Christchurch for one final hurrah and they're bringing metal kings Anthrax along for the ride.

After almost four decades, Slayer remains one of the most influential bands in heavy metal. Their unmistakable, game-changing style of punk-thrash and frenzied live shows have seen them maintain dominance in the scene alongside Metallica, Megadeth and Anthrax or the 'Big Four' as the bands are commonly referred to.

Now New Zealanders will get their chance farewell the legends in the flesh and pay homage to the men behind the music - Tom Araya on vocals, Paul Bostaph on drums, Kerry King and Gary Holt on guitars - as they bow out at the top of their game. Supporting Slayer will be their fellow 'Big Four' pals, the mighty Anthrax.

Anthrax has become accustomed to seeing their name in lights alongside Slayer and bassist Frank Bello says it has always been a potent reminder of how far they've come. So, it is entirely appropriate that Anthrax should be joining Slayer (two of the 'Big Four') at Horncastle Arena for one final blow out.

This will be a show unlike none that have been before. It is a chance for Kiwi rock fans to salute their heroes in style.
